RESOLVED COMPLAINTS:

On Monday, June 9, 2014, I spoke with Mr. Paul Gogo, owner of Mr. Paul's Chop House, located at 29850 Groesbeck, Roseville, Michigan. The purpose of this meeting with Mr. Gogo was to determine if the employees or customers at this location have been affected by fugitive particulate fallout.

Mr. Paul's Chop House is a fine dining restaurant located northeast of Roseville Crushed Concrete on the east side of Groesbeck Highway. Roseville Crushed Concrete is located on the west side of Groesbeck Highway.

I entered the building, identified myself and met with Mr. Paul Gogo, Owner, and stated the purpose of the inspection. Mr. Gogo stated that he has not observed particulate fallout impacting the vehicles on his property. Mr. Gogo stated that he was under the impression that there was less ambient air pollution in the area because a number of businesses closed due to the economy. Mr. Gogo also stated that a customer's vehicle would not likely be affected by fallout, if it occurred, because their vehicles are not parked in his lot for a long time.

CONCLUSION

The vehicles and property at Mr. Paul's Chop House do not appear to be affected by fallout in quantities noticeably greater than ambient conditions. The activities and processes at Mr. Paul's Chop House were not evaluated therefore the activity report compliance status option of "unknown" has been selected.
