RE: SRN / ID P0686, Violation Notice to Advanced Architectural Products (AAP) dated 4/22/19

This is AAP's written response to the Violation Notice dated April 22, 2019.

ITEM – FGPULTRUSION Mixing Room Vent.

This small room vent was utilized randomly for short durations until the DEQ inspection of 2/21/19. Previous inspections had not questioned this vent. We ceased usage of this vent after the 2/21 inspection. The switch which controls this vent will be disabled, and a protective cover box to prevent tampering will be installed by May 13, 2019. The disconnection and tamperproof cover will prevent any reoccurrence of this vent being utilized. The gravity louver blades at the outlet will remain closed.

ITEM – FGPULTRUSION Resin Waste.

This violation occurred on 2/21/19. The cause of the violation was a waste hopper which did not have a lid. On 4/30/2019 AAP placed an order for a steel lid made specifically to tightly fit the hopper in use. A copy of the order for the lid is attached. It will be received in 10 – 15 days from 4/30/2019. AAP will have the lid installed on the hopper by May 20, 2019. In the meantime, waste resin on rags, gloves and tray liners will be disposed of in sealable trash bags. Employees will be trained in the proper use of the hopper lid to prevent reoccurrence. Plant management will monitor correct disposal of resin waste daily.

Thank you for bringing these items to our attention. Our goal is to remain in compliance.

Sincerely,

Larry Krause
